

- Who is a liar, but he who denieth that Jesus is the Christ? This is Antichrist, who denieth the Father, and the Son. (I John 2:22)
- And they that remain of the trees of his forest shall be so few, that they shall easily be numbered, and a child shall write them down. (Isaias 10:19)
- Now the Spirit manifestly saith, that in the last times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to spirits of error, and doctrines of devils, Speaking lies in hypocrisy, and having their conscience seared, (I Timothy 4:1-2)
- Be not led away with various and strange doctrines. (Hebrews 13:9)
- For the children of Israel shall sit many days without king, and without prince, and without sacrifice, and without altar, and without ephod, and without theraphim. (Osee 3:4)
- And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall defile the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the continual sacrifice, and they shall place there the abomination unto desolation. (Daniel 11:31)
- Even if Catholics faithful to Tradition are reduced to a handful, they are the ones who are the Church of Jesus Christ. (Saint Athanasius)
- They shall not partake of holy things, until a high priest shall arise for evidence and truth. (III Esdras 5:40)
- Amen

- Hence St. Bonaventure says that in the Mass God manifests to us all the love that He has borne us, and includes in it, as in a compendium, all His benefits. On this account the Devil has always endeavored to abolish the Mass throughout the world by means of heretics, making them the precursors of Antichrist who, before all things, will endeavor to abolish, and in fact will, in punishment for the sins of men, succeed in abolishing the Holy Sacrifice of the Altar, according to the prediction of Daniel: “And strength was given him against the continual sacrifice because of sins.” (Saint Alphonsus)

Election of Pope Michael

Introduction

Who is Pope Michael? Why is he the head of the Catholic Church rather than George Bergoglio, who goes by the name of Francis?

Was Vatican II Catholic?

Joseph Ratzinger, later Benedict XVI, stated that Vatican II was a counter syllabus. What this means is that what Pope Pius IX condemned as false in the 19th century, became the truth in the 20th century at Vatican II. This is like saying that the proposition that two plus two equals five, which was false in one century can become true in another.

Further Vatican II states in two places that Allah, the God of Islam, is the one true God. John Paul II told a group of young Muslims in 1985: "We believe in the same God, the one God, the living God, the God who created the world and brings his creatures to their perfection."

What Are the Consequence of This?

To say that Allah is the one true God is to deny the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, and thus this is damnable heresy. Heretics by this action leave the Catholic Church and any position of authority they may have in the Church. Thus a priest is no longer a pastor in the Church, a Bishop no longer is a Bishop in the Church and the Pope resigns his office as Pope, for how can a man remain head of the Church, who is not a member? Saint Robert Bellarmine assures us that this is impossible.

What Can Catholics Do?

The Holy Ghost in Apocalypse tells us: "Go out from her, my people; that you be not partakers of her sins, and that you receive not of her plagues. For her sins have reached unto heaven, and the Lord hath remembered her iniquities." Catholics must leave the Vatican II sect, which Paul VI named the Conciliar Church at the end of Vatican II, just as Catholics left the Anglican Church when Henry VIII declared himself head of the Church in England.

The Church found herself in dire straits by the defection of not one or two bishops, but all of the over two thousand bishops assembled at Vatican II, who accepted the many heresies there without making any objection to their promulgation as doctrine of the Conciliar Church.

And finally The Enemy had been able to empty the Papacy completely and set up an heretical antipope in the place of the true Pope, in the holy place as prophesied by Daniel the Prophet

What Did the Church Do?

The Church was not idle, but proceeded as it should as a perfect society. It proceeded to work to provide itself with a head, with a new Pope. However, The Enemy did not want a Pope. The Enemy of Jesus and His holy Church wants to destroy the Church and bring all to eternal misery in hell. And he has been successful in deceiving billions of people, teaching them that all people go to Heaven.

However, there were a few brave souls, who fought The Enemy at all costs to themselves. The first contacted the conservative Cardinals and informed them of what had happened at Vatican II and of their duty to declare the Papacy vacant and elect a Pope to fill the vacancy. All refused to help this poor humbler Mexican priest. When he had exhausted the Cardinals, he began going to the Bishops, meeting first with Archbishop Lefebvre in May of 1976. Shortly afterwards he died under mysterious circumstances, but the effort to elect a Pope would not die. In 1981, Bishop Peter Martin Ngo-Dihn Thuc consecrated three priests as Bishops to preserve Holy Orders, until Apostolic Succession could be preserved by electing a Pope. Two of these bishops in turn consecrated two other priests as bishops. In January of 1983 four of these bishops and Bishop Ngo-Dihn met with some other priests to discuss the election of a Pope. Unfortunately Bishop Ngo-Dihn was betrayed by two of these bishops and no Pope was elected. Instead, these bishops ordained priests and consecrated bishops, creating several more Traditionalist sects along side the one created by Archbishop Lefebvre.

Archbishop Lefebvre was not to remain silent. While he was calling John Paul II an Antichrist, he had a priest investigating the possibility of electing a Pope. However, nothing ever came of this effort.

As a perfect society, the Catholic Church always has a way here and now to fill the papacy, if it becomes vacant. With this in mind a few faithful lay people continued the effort begun a decade and a half before to elect a Pope. In spite of many obstacles, an election was eventually assembled and a Pope elected.

Habemus Papam

There was not the fanfare that has accompanied papal elections over the last few centuries. Quietly in a small building in Belvue, Kansas eight Catholics assembled, and after professing the Catholic Faith according to the form prescribed by the Council of Trent, David Bawden was elected, taking the name of Pope Michael.
